Your regional news

Hi Samuel

Welcome to the spring edition of your regional update. I hope you've recovered from the cold and dark winter weather and are looking forward to longer, brighter days. I know I am!

It's been a busy beginning to the calendar year. Since the publication of the Autumn Budget in October, Gavin and the policy team have been meeting regularly with ministers to feed through what our members are telling us ready for the Spring Statement. We also welcomed our new president, Elly Hoult, in October, and whose CHOOSE HOUSING campaign has got off to a great start. Last month, Elly hosted our annual Presidential Dinner, which was attended by members from across the country. Attendees were also treated to Chris Akabusi telling the story of his life and career and providing fresh inspiration for the year ahead.

Our virtual events calendar has been jam-packed full of sessions over the past three months, with topics ranging from youth homelessness to women in construction. You

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS FOR HOUSING

Working in the housing sector, you can do more for people in one day than most professionals can achieve in a whole career. The decisions you take every day have a huge impact on people's lives.

That's why professionalism is so important.

The CIH professional standards are a set of tailored characteristics for the modern housing professional, and our self-assessment tool will help you self-reflect and guide you on your professional journey.

Designed with the housing sector, for the housing sector

Establish yourself as a professional in the housing sector by gaining the theoretical knowledge, essential skills, and practical learning needed to perform at the highest level in your job and advance your career.

CIH qualifications are delivered by approved external study centres but awarded by the Chartered Institute of Housing. These study centres will guide you throughout your learning journey, working to the CIH specification and the learning outcomes. You can view all our approved study centres here.

Find the right qualification for you

Whether you're starting out in the housing or you're an experienced professional, we offer qualifications suited to your needs. CIH qualifications range from level two for anyone new to the housing sector, through to postgraduate certificates for those in strategic leadership roles.

Choose your level to find the qualification that matches your experience and career ambitions.
