

Tenant membership

Chartered
Institute of Housing

Tenant membership enables tenants to keep up-to-date with the latest developments likely to affect their homes, develop their skills and knowledge and increase the contribution they can make to their communities.

If, as a tenant, you are already involved with your local housing organisation, tenant membership will help you to develop your knowledge further and increase your involvement. For housing organisations, tenant membership can strengthen the work of your tenant forums.

Full CIH member benefits

Discounts on CIH conferences and events

Access to news, advice and policy briefings, including Inside Housing and regular 'What you need to know' member briefings

Your CIH membership...

In addition to joining a network of members, tenant members will receive a range of benefits including

- > Information and advice on good practice in relation to how housing services are managed
- > Opportunities to learn and gain qualifications to recognise excellence in areas such as tenant participation and scrutiny
- > Access to a network of other tenants both locally and across the UK
- > All the member benefits standard membership offers

How can you get involved?
CIH tenant membership is available to tenants and residents at a concessionary fee.
